Speyside is often called 'Scotland's larder' due to its rich landscape and quality of its produce.

Speyside's Craigellachie Hotel, dating back to 1703, is surrounded by 70% of Scotland's whisky distilleries and attracts over 35,000 visitors per year to its famous Spey Inn and Quaich Bar.

Spey Bar takes inspiration from its Highland sister hotel; an effortlessly stylish place where you can sit back, relax and enjoy a dram.
